Mrs.B.Winmill, of 10 James Street, Bilston, 1922 has returned the Final Verification Form dated 19th September with the following Personal Inscription:-

EVER IN OUR THOUGHTS

At the bottom of the Form Mrs.Winmill has made the following remark:-

"I do not agree to pay the costs He gave his life freely & if this cannot be put on freely leave it off"

Will you please inform me whether this should be taken as a definite refusal to pay for the Inscription and the Inscription thereby cancelled, or whether the usual Unable to Pay Form should be forwarded in order that the Inscription may be engraved free of cost.

In reply to your minute 5/B23/503/W, as the next of kin has not agreed to pay the cost of putting on the inscription this should be omitted, and the headstone erected without any additional inscription.
